Our Vision

The transportation industry is one of the last to be disrupted. With prices competitive to cars and buses, and all the comforts of a restaurant. Our mission is to provide cheaper, faster, greener transportation.

...and still expanding

Passenger and ...

- independent IM & separation of the railway operator?
- financial transparency & account separation?
- full opening of rail market?
- access to rolling stock?

and ...

- direct award?
- double mandates?
- social dumping?
